SIX DEATHS AND MANY NEW CASES

Every Precaution Being Taken By the Health Officers.

HOPE TO ERADICATE THE FEVER

The Authorities Have the Situation Well in Hand—Italians Seem To Be More Affected than Any One Else. Headquarters Are at Memphis.

New Orleans, La., July 28.—No report of additional new cases or deaths from yellow fever was made public by the city board of health in the early hours of the day. There was unofficial report of a number of cases. Official report was made today of 12 new cases and six deaths occurring in the preceding 24 hours. Of the 12 new cases nine are Italians. Six of the cases are at 520 and 524 St. Phillip street, showing the principal infection to be still in the vicinity of the French market. Only two of the cases are in the upper part of the city. Of the deaths, one occurred in the hospital, two uptown and the other three in the French market district.

The health department officials after a study of th efoci expessed the opinion today that there was still hope of eradicating the disease before fall and that oin any event with the precautions being taken a serious epidemic was entirely out of the question.

As a result of the decision of the state board of health to make the six-day detention immediately effective, four fruit ships bound to New Orleans have been ordered to Mobile, which is understood to be willing to receive them.

One case of yellow fever has appeared at a cannery 5 miles from Ft. St. Phillips, 60 miles below the city. It is that of an Italian woman who escaped from the French market district. Lieutenant Colonel Maus, U. S. A., has returned from the fort. There is no present intention to move the garrison. Dr. R. T. Ames is to be stationed at Jackson barracks. There is no fever at the post.

Italian societies are taking a hand with priests of their nationality with a view to aiding the authorities. The only serious alarm here has been among the Italians. Many of them living in the French market section were ignorant ad superstitious and when the fever began to rage they became frightened and those not down with it fled to friends in other sections of the city and to the surrounding country. That is why the foci has been distrbuted. There is still alarm among them, and the Italian societies and priests will try to reassure them, interest them in sanitation and pledge them to promptly report cases of illness among them. Several cases of concealed fever have been reported by the societies.

Formerly in yellow fever epidemics here houses containing cases have been flagged. It has not yetbeen decided to flag cases this year. Arbitrary restrictions against attendance at funerals have also been modified in the belief that only the mosquito can transmit the disease. Publication of lists of cases and their location has not been made, but the records are open to inspection and the health officials are mapping all foci and are promply screen them.

To enable passengers from the east to proceed westward without annoyance or difficuly via New Orleans, the Southern Pacific is now operating their trains from the Esplanade ferry landing, where direct connection is made with the Louisville and Nashville trains without going through the city as heretofore.

Patients are being received at the emergency yellow fever hospitals. Accommodations for 75 cases have been provided. These will steadily be increased.

A telegram from Bay St. Louis, Miss., says that the first intelligence reaching there of the existence of yellow fever at Back Bay, where a small schooner from New Orleans is said to have landed a number of Italians from New Orleans, was through today's press...

New Orleans papers. The report is considered unreliable, but an official has been sent to the scene to investigate.

Fruit Vessels Land at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., July 28.—Fruit steamers that have been out five days and show a clean bill of health can unload at the local wharves under the usual restrictions. Under no circumstances will vessels from an infectable port be permitted to come nearer than the lower bay, where the fruit will be lightered when under strict quarantine regulations. Two steamships arrived today from Bluefield, a noninfected port. These vessels have been going to New Orleans.

President of Board at Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., July 28.—Dr. J. A. Albright, president of the Tennessee state board of health announced today that he would establish temporary headquarters in Memphis. Dr. Albright approves the action of the local authorities in declining to quarantine against New Orleans and says that should a case of yellow fever appear at any point in Tennessee he will promptly report it to the people.

NUMBER OF DEAD REACHES 62.

The Gunboat Bennington Is Again Declared To Be Seaworthy.

Sandiego, Cal., July 28.—The list of the Bennington dead now numbers 62, there having been two more deaths, S. Tucate, a Japanese mee attendant, and H. A. Metius, pay clerk.

The case of Metius is peculiar. He was able to walk up town after the accident and was thought not to have been badly injured. After his wounds had been dressed he was out on the streets. Suddenly he collapsed and had to be taken to the hospital on a stretcher. It is supposed that the shock and a weak heart were the causes of his death.

The Bennington is now ready to go north. But should Admiral Goodrich, who is due here decide to go into an inquiry here, the presumption is that the Benning will not be taken north until the investigation is completed.

Britishers Will Visit Baltic Sea.

London, July 28.—The British channel fleet will sail for the Baltic sea Aug. 25, and will remain there through September. As it has been years since a British fleet appeared in that sea, the announcement is connected in the public mind with Emperor William's recent tour, and the visit of a German squadron to Scandinavian waters. The cruise of the British fleet is regarded as designed to counteract the preponderance of German influence in Scandinavia politics. The admiralty, however, discourages the idea of politics having any bearing on the cruise and says that the Baltic is an open sea and that the fleet is simply going there to execute maneuvers, a ceremonious visit not being contemplated.

Anxiety Over Alleged Boycott.

San Francisco, July 28.—Local merchants interested in trade with China have been rather anxious over a rumor afloat that the Chinese oycott against American goods has gone into effect and that all the big milling and flour companies had received stop orders from their agents in the Orient and the existing contracts had been cancelled. China buys about $220,000,000 worth of foreign goods annually. Of this amount, about $20,000,000 comes from the United States, of which about $4,000,000 comes from San Francisco. Of the latter amount near one-third is flour, about 500,000 barrels being exported.

Peary Starts for North Pole.

North Sydney, B. C., July 28.—The arctic steamer Roosevelt, bearing commander Robert E. Peary's latest expedition, has swung clear of terminal wharf and headed northward on her voyage of discovery toward the north pole. As the steamer left the wharf an immense crowd, which had gathered to witness her departure, burst into cheers, which were mingled with the whistles of the steamers, and the demonstration continued as the steamer passed down the harbor. The city had been gaily decorated for the occasion...

RUSSIA PREPARING TO PAY INDEMNITY

Financiers Are Getting Ready To Negotiate the Loan.

JAPANESE TERMS WILL BE HIGH

Berlin Bankers Have Formed an Alliance with the House of Rothschilds, of London, and They Will Undertake to Raise the Money for the Czar.

Berlin, July 28.—In view of the probability of an early peace between Russia and Japan the terms of which will involve the payment of a very heavy indemnity by Russia, the financiers of Europe have been holding conferences to the end that the peace idemnity may be paid without seriously disturbing the finances of the world. The Mandelssohn's, the Berlin brokers, who have been for many years the representatives on the continet of the Russia government, and who have negotiated many of the Russian loans, have formed an alliance with the Rothschilds in respect of the matter and have held communications with all the leading financial institutions both on the continent and in England.

They are about to send their representatives to New York with a view to enlisting the co-operation of the larger financiers of the United States. It is likely that a Russian loan for the purpose of paying the indemnity will be secured and a considerable portion of it will be taken in the United States.

J. Pierpont Morgan, after having conferred with a number of financiers of England, is sailing today for New York.

ENDOW CHAIR OF FORESTRY.

Yale University Will Add a New Department for Students.

Chicago, July 28.—First steps toward the reducing of $150,000 to be used in the endowment of a chair of applied forestry at Yale university have been taken at a meeting of the executive committee of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association. The committee has in charge the raising of the necessary funds for the endowment of the chair and the appointment of a special committee of three practical lumbermen t oco-operate with the Yale forest school faculties with a view of directing the course of study along practical lines and also the work of securing a committee of 100 lumbermen who will have charge of the work in the various lumber districts.

The support of the United States government also will be solicited and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry bureau, will be made an honorary member of the executive committee.

To Preserve the South's Forests.

Washington, July 28—Alfred Gaskill, of the forest service, leaves Washington for Alabama, where he will proceed to Mississippi and then to Texas, the purpose of his trip being to promote the wise use of the rich forest possibilities o fthe south. He will attend meetings of farmers' institutes and talk to the farmers about their wood lots and about tree planting using the experience of the past in other regions to enforce the need and the value of the right treatment of woodlands. He will also meet commercial bodies and confer with them over the resources treasured in the great southern forests and the opportunity that is there to profit by the experience of other regions to maintain permanently a diversity of industries dependent upon future forest production.

To Force King to Abdicate.

San Francisco, July 28—The schooner William Olsen from the Friendly islands brings the news that a movement is on foot among the English residents to force King George, the ruler of the islands, to abdicate. The islands being under the protection of the British, King George has gone to New Zealand to plead before King Edward's representatives that the government of the Islands be unaltered and that he be reserved on his th...

STEAMER DETAINED BY FOG.

Ship Bearing Russian Envoys Is Unable to Leave Port.

Cherbourg, July 28—Although it was announced that the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse left the Needles at 5:30 this morning, the vessel is still here as this dispatch is filed and it is not expected that she will be able to leave Cherbourg for New York before this afternoon owing to the denseness of the fog.

M. Witte, the chief Russian plenipotentiary who is a passenger, appears somewhat annoyed at the delay, the Russian peace party being already late when compared with the Japanese.

The Russians were most interested in reading the press dispatches describing the arrival in New York of Baron Komura and his party, and expressed the hope that the Japanese conditions would really be as moderate as set forth in the dispatches set forth here. The lack of accommodation at the hotels, some of the passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse were compelled to spend the night on board the North German Lloyd steamship company's tugs, in sleeping cars at the railroad station and even on the pier.

REPORT OF DEFUNCT BANK.

Is Received by Comptroller of the Currency at Washington.

Washington, July 28.—The first report of the receiver of the City National bank of Topeka, Kans., which closed July 21, 1905, has been received by the comptroller of the currency. The receiver classified the assets of the bank as follows:

Good, $756,684; doubtful, $1,222,435; worthless, $139,156.

And the liabilities as follows:

Individual deposits $1,122,737; certificates of deposits, $318,956; due to national banks, $99,334; due to other banks and bankers, $12,114; unpaid drafts outstanding, $106,800; other liabilities, $605. Total, $1,660,557.

In submitting this report the receiver states that he has found much difficulty in estimating the value of the Devlin collaterals and that his estimate of such collaterals may not even approximately indicate what may be finally realized therefrom.

Estill a Candidate for Governor.

Savannah, Ga., July 28.—Although Colonel J. H. Estill has not announced that he will be a candidate for governor, campaign buttons bearing an excellent likeness of him and inscribed "J. H. Estill for Goverer," have made their appearance. This is regarded as most significant, since the buttons are being circulated by Marion Lucas, through whom the Osborne letters went to the state press. When it is known that Mr. Lucas is city editor of the Morning News, Colonel Estill's paper, this distribution of Estill buttons become even more significant. It is not believed that they would have been issued without the knowledge of the prospective candidate from south Georgia.

Drought Injures Alabama Crops.

Columbus, Ga., July 28.—Mr. Cliff Johnson, of the O. P. Poe warehouse, of this city, and one of the most prominent cotton men of Columbus, said in an interview give out that the cotton and corn crops of this section of Georgia and Alabama are in danger of great damage. The drought has practically burned up the corn and has caused the cotton a serious setback in the last ten days said he. Mr. Johnson also predicts a short crop of corn and cotton in this section, and states that if there is not a short one, all over the country and prices run up to a good place, the farmers will suffer.

Violated the Election Laws.

Richmond, Va., July 28.—The charge against five men, including Alfred E. Williams, editor of an afternoon paper, for alleged violation of election laws in the recent Democratic primary here. The indictment alleges Mr Williams agreed to pay $25 to one of the others indicted for influencing votes in behalf of a candidate for commonwealth attorney. All except one who is out of town, gave $500 bond each. The cases will be trise in September.

NEWS FROM THE FAR EASTERN WAR

Russian Ports Are Captured By Japanese Soldiers.

JAPANESE CONTINUE ADVANCE

Only Slight Engagements Are Reported, the Russians Offering Little Resistance to Mikado's Army Invasion of Sakhalin Islands.

Tokio, July 27.—11 a. m.—Rear Admiral Kataoka, in reporting the successful landing of the Japanese forces in the vicinity of Alexandrovsk on Sakhalin island, says that the piers at Alexandrovsk Niyomi and Mukaho were found undestroyed, but the enemy had set fire to Mumika and Arkiva and the fires are still burning. Alexandrovsk was not burned.

The admiral's report which was received at 7:30 p. m., on July 24, says that the Japanese flag was hoisted over the government buildings at Alexandrovsk without any loss on the part of the Japanese forces.

It is announced at army headquarters that the Japanese army on Sakhalin island on the morning of July 24 without meeting heavy resistance from the Russians, commenced landing in the neighborhood of Aikova 8 miles north of Alexandrovisk and that Alexandrovosk was seized Tuesday.

Local military critics in discussing the situation in North Korea predict that the Russians will vigorously defend Kyong Cheung o the south of the Tumen river. This town is regarded as most important from a strategical standpoint as it controls Possie bay. Kyong Cheung is also regarded as the outer line of the defenses of Vladivostok.

Japanese Continue to Advance.

Kuanchangtsu, Manchuria, July 28—According to reports from Korea the Japanese continue advancing along a 40-mile front. Their van guard is now about 80 miles from the mouth of the Tumen river. The Koreans estimate the strength of the Japanese at about 40,000 men. Their main force is concentrated at Kenchan.

RAWLINGS BOYS FOUND GUILTY.

Mercy Is Recommended for One but Other Will Hang.

Valdosta, Ga., July 28.—The trial of Jesse and Leonard L. Rawlings on the charge of murder of two children of W. L. Carter, ended Wednesday afternoon with a verdict of guilty, but a recommendation for mercy for Leonard. This means that Jesse will have to hang, and that Leonard will spend his life in the penitentiary.

It was five minutes after 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon that they had reached an agreement. The judge was at the court house waiting for the jury's decision, and the jury was quickly brought in. The foreman, B. H. Jones, handed the verdict to Solicitor General Thomas. It read as follows: "We, the judy find Leonard and Jesse Rawlings guilty and reccomend that Leonard be sent to the penitentiary for life."

The jury was polled and each member acknowledged the verdict as his.

The mother and sisters of the condemned young men were present as the verdict was read out. The mother broke down and sobbed aloud, though the girls showed little emotion. Leonard and Jesse received the verdict with bowed heads and pale faces.

Wants to Hold 'Change Seats

Cincinnati, July 28—In the exhaustion of Referee Greve in the bankruptcy case of the firm of Hopkins & Co., brokers, Charles Henrot, a former member of the firm claims that the seats on the New York Stock Exchange and the New York Cotton Exchange are personal property and that at no time had these been a part of the assets of the firm. If this contention is upheld the largest assets will be taken from the creditors who represent liabilities amounting to about $750,000 with assets of but a few thousand dollars.

GEN. ROBT. BULLOCK HAS PASSED AWAY

End of the Useful Life of a Grand Old Man.

SOLDIER HERO AND STATESMAN

Represented Second District in Congress Four Years—Beloved by Many Old Comrades in Alachua County. His Public Career in Florida.

Ocala, July 28.—General Robert Bullock, Florida's grand old man, died at his home here at 1:29 o'clock Thursday afternoon after a long illness.

General Bullock was born in North Carolina December 8, 1828, moving to Florida in 1844.

In his early life he was a school teacher. He began his public career in Florida in 1849, when he was elected clerk of the circuit court of Marion county, which position he held for six years. He then engaged in business for a year.

In 1856 Governor Brown commissioned him to organize an independent company of mounted volunteers to serve as a protection against Indian incursion, he filling the position as its captain for eighteen months, when it was considered safe to disband the company.

He then returned to Ocala and read law, being admitted to practice in 1861. He practiced his profession for a year, and was then commissioned by Governor Milton to raise a company for the Civil War, which became a part of the South Florida Regiment.

General Bullock fought in the Kentucky campaign with General Kirby Smith, being soon promoted to a colonelcy.

He was in the battle of Chickamauga and at Missionary Ridge, at which latter place he was captured. He was a prisoner on Johnson's Island from November 1, 1863, until March, 1864. He was in many other battles, and reached the rank of brigadier-general.

He was wounded at Murfreesboro in December, 1864, and disabled for further service.

When he recovered he resumed the practice of his profession in Ocala, being later appointed judge of the circuit court, but was ousted by the reconstruction in 1868.

He was Democratic nominee for lieutenant-governor in 1872, and a Tilden elector in the campaign of 1876.

In 1880 he was elected clerk of the circuit court for Marion county.

He ably represented his district in the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses, retiring from public life in 1893. Later, however, he was again called to the circuit bench.

General Bullock had the distinction of being the oldest voter in Marion county.

[General Bullock was especially popular in Alachua county, many of the old Veterans having served with him in the war between the States, and upon the occasion of his visit to Gainesville at the unveiling of the Confederate monument erected by Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., he was given one of the greatest ovations ever accorded a man in this city. Gainesville and Alachua county extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives in their hour of affliction].

ANOTHER GOOD MAN AT REST.

Col. Angus Paterson Died at His Home in Madison.

Madison, July 28.—Angus Paterson died here Thursday night at the residence of his sister, Miss Katherine Paterson, after a lengthy illness. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, September 17, 1834, but had lived most of his life here. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church, and was an active and consistent member, whose place cannot well be filled. For years he was superintendent of the Sabbath school.

He was known throughout the State as an able and efficient lawyer, having filled many responsible positions; was a member of the constitutional convention in 1865; he was an enthusiastic and devoted member of the Masonic order, and took an active interest in the proceedings of that order. He leaves a sister and brother at this place, and a brother in Gadsden county, and many friends who sincerely lament his death.

Negroes Arrested for Killing Negro.

Newberry, S. C., July 28.—Charged with killing Charlie Gilliam, a negro, last Thursday night Horace Sheppard, alias George Gilliam, and Richard Gilliam, both negroes, have been arrested and lodged in the county jail. Gilliam was shot from ambush last Thursday night, his dead body being found the following morning one mile from the scene of the shooting. It is said there is strong circumstantial evidence against the men.

Foreign Rumor is Denied.

Berlin, July 28.—The German foreign office denies utterly the report published by the correspondent of a London paper at Stockholm to the effect that Emperor William in his recent interview with the Russian emperor had sought to obtain the consent of the latter for a prince of the house of Hohenzollern to ascend the throne of Norway.

Error in Cotton Report.

Washington, July 28.—In the revised cotton report issued yesterday by the departure of agriculture an error was committed in the second paragraph which made it appear that the June estimate by Mr. Hyde was "lower than the facts at hand warranted," when, in fact, it was made higher. The erroneous statement has been corrected by the department.

Cheerfully Recommended for Rheumatism.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c. 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

How many men work too hard? How many do you know?

Every good husband is henpecked. That's all there is to it.

Classical music is like some people—very hard to understand.

It is said that a farmer gets the best work out of a farm hand who is aspiring to be his son-in-law.

Perhaps one reason why a poor man lives longer than a rich one is that the doctors don't take so much interest in him.

When an economical man suffers a ten dollar loss he cuts off expenditures reaching to $50 before he feels right about it.

If you have faults the idea is not to humiliate yourself by acknowledging them to your enemies, but to get over them if possible for your own good.—Atchison Globe.

Leaping Treason.

King William III. of England was passionately fond of the chase and made it a point never to be outdone in any leap, however perilous. A Mr. Cherry, who was devoted to the exiled family, took advantage of this to plan the most pardonable design which was ever formed against a king's life. He regularly joined the royal hounds, put himself foremost and took the most desperate leaps in the hope that William might break his neck in following him. One day, however, he accomplished one so imminently dangerous that the king when he came to the spot shook his head and drew back. It is said that Mr. Cherry at length broke his own neck and thereby relieved the king from further hazard.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Leek of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." 25c. [illegible]

"HERE IS THE TRAIL."

Signs Used by Indian Tribes and White Hunters.

First among the trail signs that are used by Indians and white hunters and most likely to be of use to the traveler, says a writer in Country Life in America, are ax blazes on tree trunks. These may vary greatly with locality, but there is one everywhere in use with scarcely any variation. This is simply the white spot nicked off by knife or ax and meaning, "Here is the trail."

The Ojibways and other woodland tribes use twigs for a great many signs. The hanging broken twig, like the simple blaze, means, "This is the trail." The twig clean broken off and laid on the ground across the line of march means, "Break from your straight course and go in the line of the butt end," and when an especial warning is meant the butt is pointed toward the one following the trail and raised somewhat in a forked twig. If the butt of the twig were raised and pointing to the left it would mean, "Look out, camp," or "Ourselves or the enemy or the game we have killed is out that way."

The old buffalo hunters had an established signal that is yet used by mountain guides. It is as follows:

Two shots in rapid succession, an interval of five seconds by the watch, then one shot, means, "Where are you?" The answer, given at once and exactly the same, means: "Here I am. What do you want?" The reply to this may be one shot, which means, "All right; I only wanted to know where you were." But if the reply repeats the first it means: "I am in serious trouble. Come as fast as you can."

PROUD OF HIS WORK.

John McCullough Made Chairs Before He Became an Actor.

Of the thousands who admired the acting of John McCullough few were aware that at sixteen he could read, but could not write, and that at eighteen he knew absolutely nothing of literature, perhaps not even the name of the great poet of Avon, whose interpreter he afterward became.

In after life McCullough used to speak gratefully of an old chairmaker, under whom he worked, for teaching him two things—"chairmaking and Shakespeare." In his periods of conviviality the old chairmaker was accustomed to spout Shakespeare to young McCullough, giving a somewhat imperfect imitation of Forrest's acting. It was this that turned McCullough's thought from chairmaking to the stage. Yet in all his after years McCullough was proudest of his early craft. On one occasion, at the height of his popularity, he was the guest of a wealthy Philadelphian. In the midst of the talk after dinner the tragedian glanced at a chair in the room, went over to it and, turning it bottom up, said to his amazed host:

"I thought so! That's one of my chairs!"

And he seemed prouder of the fact that the chair had lasted so long, because it was so well made, than he was of his histrionic success.—Saturday Evening Post.

GAINEY COMMITS ANOTHER MURDER

Killed Rhodes Sullivan, An Aged Man, Near Columbia City.

IS AN ESCAPED CONVICT

Made Successful Escape from Baker's Turpentine Camp, Near Campville, Few Weeks Ago, Was Chased to Gainesville and Lost.

Tom Gainey, who was sent up for life from the circuit court of Alachua county for the murder of a colored woman in the vicinity of Alachua and who made his escape from the turpentine camp of P. H. Baker at Campville a few weeks ago, full mention and particulars of which appeared in The Sun, is guilty of another murder, having killed an aged colored man near Columbia City, Columbia county, Thursday.

Thursday afternoon Sheriff Fennell received a telegram from the sheriff of Columbia county asking him to come at once and bring his hounds, as Gainey had killed another man. The sheriff could not go, but endeavored to get a message to Deputy Sheriff J. H. Granger, who was then in the vicinity of High Springs, to proceed to Fort White and assist the Columbia county officer. Officer Granger did not receive the message, however, and returned to Gainesville Friday morning.

Mr. Granger learned of the killing and said at one time he was inclined to go to the assistance of the Columbia county authorities, but inasmuch as he was working under direction of the Alachua county sheriff, thought it best to return home. Should he have gone his action would have been in accord with Sheriff Fennell's wishes.

Officer Granger states that from the particulars which could be learned at High Springs, Gainey killed a colored man named Rhodes Sullivan. It appears that Sullivan has been working in connection with the officers of Columbia county in an endeavor to effect Gainey's capture. Gainey learned this, and at an early hour Thursday morning he was watching the house, and when Sullivan went out on the piazza and was in the act of putting on his shoes he was shot dead, four buckshot from Gainey's gun having entered his head.

Gainey, who is a desperate man, is still at large.

Gainey's Escape.

The particulars of Gainey's escape from Campville have already appeared in this paper. It may be well, however, to refresh the reader's mind, that he was serving a life sentence in the Baker turpentine camp, and always gave the management and the guards more trouble than all other convicts combined. He was regarded as mean, tricky, and of that butt-headed disposition which was to say the least provoking. If he decided he did not care to work at certain times he was worse than a balking horse, and no force or pursuasive power could induce him to move. Upon one occasion he took advantage of an opportunity to make his escape, and was successful, having shielded himself behind other convicts until he had progressed a safe distance. The guard was afraid to fire, because it endangered the lives of other prisoners, with the result that when he did fire the range was too long to be effective. Gainey was chased to Gainesville, but in North Gainesville the dogs gave up the chase, and the fleeing convict made his escape. He has since been at large.

Wrote Broward a Letter.

From High Springs Gainey wrote Governor Broward a unique letter, in which he stated that he was not being entertained at the Baker camp with the hospitality which he thought was due him and had decided to leave. "I will not kill that woman anyway," he concluded, "and I do not propose to suffer for it, so good-bye."

Negroes Turn State's Evidence.

Birmingham, Ala., July 28.—Jack Foster, the negro for whom a $5... reward was offered as the alleged criminal assaulter and murderer of Mrs. S. J. Smith, of Gadsden, and who was arrested at that city two days ago, made a statement yesterday in which he told exactly the same story that Vance Garner, held in jail here on the same charge, with the exception that he made the other negro the assailant and himself the would-be rescuer. Four alleged perpetrators of the crime are in Birmingham and each testify against the other three.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Dead Man Found on River Bank.

Atlanta, July 28.—Arthur Wood, 30 years old, was found dead on the bank of the Chattahoochee river Tuesday afternoon by his mother. The body was very much decayed and Wood had evidently been dead for several days when found. The coroner held an inquest and returned a verdict of murder. There were evidence of the man's skull having been crushed. Two dollars in money, a pockebook and an open knife were found under the body. The pockets of the man's clothes were turned wrong side out and it is believed he had been robbed. Wood was recently arrested on the charge of attempted assault and had only obtained his freedom a short time ago.

New York, July 28.—Kogora Takahira and peace plenipotentiary his colleague, Baron Komura, went to Oyster Bay this forenoon to pay an informal visit to President Roosevelt. None of the suite accompanied the two peace delegates. They are expected to return late today. Tonight Baron Komura and the committee will dine informally with Baron Kaneko at the Metropolitan club.

The Boss Worm Medicine.

H. P. Kumpe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick, and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

JAPANESE WHALERS.

The Curious Way They Do Their Work With Nets and Knives.

Whales are captured in nets by the Japanese. The whalers put off from the shore as quietly as possible, and when they come within the proper distance of their objective the boats, which have hitherto worked in couples, separate and, dropping their nets as they go, work around to the rear and flanks of their expected kill. The nets are made in large squares, each side being about forty feet long. One net is composed of six squares in line, and the squares are fastened to each other lightly. When all is ready the boats which have been worked around to the rear of the whale then commence to drive him gently toward the nets. Moving along lazily at first, the whale soon realizes that something untoward is happening and, hurrying forward, dashes on to one of the nets. This is the critical moment, and when the fishermen see that the whale is well in the center of one of the squares they raise a great shout and charge in upon him.

When the whale is about spent a man chosen for his strength, activity, pluck, coolness and general fitness for his work then leaps upon his back and with a great triangular shaped knife proceeds to cut two great gashes in his body just back of his head. Through the underlying blubber and these two gashes he passes a rope and, knotting it, makes a loop of it. He then repeats the same operation as far back on his body as he can. When the fight has been completely knocked out of the whale, boats range alongside of him, and by the help of the loops already mentioned the hapless cetacean is slung between them in such a manner as to minimize the danger of his carcass sinking.

Then the boats form in procession, and, making for the shore, there commences the most curious part of the whole affair. The whalers, with real fervor and in the most solemn manner possible, begin a chanting prayer for the ease of the departing spirit by calling out "Joraku! Joraku! Joraku!" in low, deep tones. Upon the third day after the kill a memorial service is held in the village temple, and prayers are offered for the repose of the dead whale's soul.—Chicago News.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Roumanian Custom.

A strange custom is still observed in Roumania which reminds one strongly of Robinson Crusoe. When a servant has displeased his or her master the offender takes his boots in his hands and places them before the bedroom door of his master. It is a sign of great submission, and the boots are either kicked away as an intimation that the fault will not be forgiven or else the servant is told to place them on his feet, which shows that he is forgiven.

Shattered Ideal.

"Paw, what does it mean where it says here that the girl's ideal was shattered?"

"Why, it means she found that she could marry a wealthier man."—Detroit Tribune.

Indigestion,

With its companions, heartburn flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Possible.

MAN COMMITS HEINOUS CRIME.

Menaced Babe to Awe Mother, Whom He Chiminally Assaulted.

Hattiesburg, Miss., July 28.—The country three miles east of here, on the New Orleans and Northwestern railway is in a turmoil over a heinous case of criminal assault, perpetrated by a strange white man upon Mrs. John Birge, the wife of the railroad section foreman at that point. The case has just been reported to Sheriff A. J. McAllen, who has announced a reward of $100 for the capture of the criminal.

The woman was at home alone with her 6-months-old babe, her husband being at work. The stranger entered through a window, thrust on her face a handkerchief saturated with chloroform, and pointing to the baby asleep on the cot said:

"If you scream or say a word, I'll throw that babe on the floor and stamp its brains out with my heels."

When the husband returned he found his wife upon the floor, still unconscious.

It was several hours before she was able to give a coherent account of what had happened. Searching parties were hastily formed, but the criminal had such a long start that he has so far eluded his pursuers.

THE RICH AND THE POOR NEED PE-RU-NA.

"Pe-ru-na Is the Medicine for the Poor Man."—Geo. A. Hughes.

Many Suffer With Catarrh and Don't Know It.

The Phase of Catarrh Most Prevalent in Summer is a Run Down, Worn Out Condition Known as Systemic Catarrh.

CATARRH assumes different phases in different seasons of the year. In the early summer systemic catarrh is most prevalent.

That tired, worn-out feeling in nine cases out of ten is due to a catarrhal condition of the mucous membranes.

Mr. Geo. A. Hughes, 808 Mass. Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes;

"Peruna has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I am forty-five years old now, and feel as good as I did at twenty. I was very thin and run down, but Peruna acted just right in my case. I am a carpenter and sometimes need a tonic. Peruna is the medicine for a poor man."—Geo. A. Hughes.

A Congressman Uses Pe-ru-na in His Family.

Hon. Thos. J. Henderson, Member of Congress from Illinois, and Lieutenant in the Union Army for eight years, writes from the Lemon building, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Peruna has been used in my family with the very best results and I take pleasure in recommending your valuable remedy to my friends as a tonic and an effective cure for catarrh."—Thos. J. Henderson.

Peruna cleanses the mucous membranes and cures the catarrh wherever located.

There are no remedies for catarrh just as good as Peruna. Accept no substitutes.

WRITES TO MISS ROOSEVELT.

Private Soldier in Regular Army Will Be Tried on Lunacy.

New York, June 28—Private James G. Jones, of the regular army, who has been serving a term of imprisonment on Governor's Island for desertion from his command at Fort Banks, Mass., has been removed from Camp Williams on a special order, to be examined by the board of lunacy.

Although great secrecy has been maintained, the World states that it was learned yesterday Private Jones had been sending love letters to Miss Alice Roosevelt. More than a score are said to have reached secret service agents when Jones finally sent a sharp note to Mrs. Roosevelt in which he charged the latter with standing between the president's daughter and himself.

The secret service men soon located the writer of the letters but were unable to learn how he managed to mail them. Some of them expressed the belief that he was feigning insanity.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GEN. ROBERT BULLOCK DEAD.

The Ocala Evening Star of Thursday, July 27, says:

"General Robert Bullock, who has been confined to his bed for several months, died this afternoon at 1:30. While it was hoped for a long time that the General's strong constitution would bring him through his illness, it was very apparent during the last few days that he was nearing the end, as he grew weaker, and his mind began to wander. He was the oldest citizen in the county, having come here in 1845, and its leading one, he having taken an important part in every move that tended to promote the best interests of the community. He was a brave and gallant soldier, was prominent in the councils of his party and served two terms in Congress with distinction. His death is deeply deplored."

The Shah of Persia is not so slow. He is doing Paris and is dead broke, so there is no danger of the Parisians doing him.

The coal miners are preparing for a strike. The movement is being made to forestall a lockout of the anthracite coal miners.

A barrel of lime and some good sanitary work, says The Tampa Tribune, are a great deal less expensive than even a second-class funeral.

The Atlanta Journal has become so rattled since the slump in the local ball team that it has the standings of all the other league players very badly mixed.

It has not yet been decided whether Mr. Mitchell of Oregon will use the prefix of senator to his name for the intervening six months as the convict number.

Cut down the weeds and drive out the mosquitoes. There are many vacant lots where there is a rank growth of weeds. They should be cut down, dried and burned.

The people of Florida have great faith in Dr. Porter, State health officer and he is at work with a will to retain their confidence. His advice should be followed as near as possible.

The question as to whether the beef barons or the Santa Fe Railroad officials will be convicted is not worrying the parties concerned in the least. It wouldn't do to cut off the meat supply or shut off the railroad transportation.

WHY THEY LEAVE HOME.

Many people wonder why foreigners leave their homes and come to this country to live. In many instances they are opposed to being driven into the army, where they put in the best portion of their days, and they have heard of freedom and are desirous of enjoying, so they desert the army, or by some method doctor their eyes so as to incapacitate them for service and sail for the land of the free, where they become citizens. But that does not free them from the Fatherland, as will be seen by a recent dispatch, which says that after living for thirty-one years in the United States, August Pfaff, a well known resident of Cleveland, O., who returned to Germany on a visit, has been arrested by the German authorities while on a visit to his native town of Haeeking, Germany. The information came in a letter to his son. The letter stated he had been in jail two weeks and would probably remain in prison for some time, although he hoped eventually to be released upon the payment of a fine.

No matter how long he may reside in this country, if he deserts the army he is liable to arrest on his return, and who wouldn't want to leave such a country like that?

CHANGE OF VENUE.

In speaking of the trial of the murderer Williams, The Pensacola Journal says:

"From present indications it looks as though an effort will be made to get a change of venue in the case of William F. Williams. At least it is stated that attorneys who have been secured to represent the defendant will make an effort to this end and will also fight any special term of the circuit court or any effort to have a speedy trial.

"Attorneys have been employed by relatives of Williams and they will represent him when the case comes up for trial. Their first fight will be to get a change of venue and it is probable that if a change is granted one of the nearby counties will be chosen.

"Williams is seemingly contented in jail and reads everything pertaining to his case with interest. He is visited by his relatives each day, who furnish him with his meals, and is apparently in good spirits. He has not been ill to any extent, the only thing being that he becomes restless occasionally from being confined in a cell with no one with whom to converse."

WILL CZAR ABDICATE.

There is talk of the abdication of the Czar of Russia from his throne. If he should do so, we will give him credit for having more sense than has been accorded him in the past. While he has been dubbed a sort of "sissy man," he will do the proper thing by stepping down and out before he is humiliated at the peace conference, which he certainly will be if any terms of peace are reached.

He is like a whipped bully. For years we have been led to believe that the Czar of Russia was the head of the greatest nation of fighters on the earth, and now that little Japan has driven his armies nearly off the surface of the sphere, he would never be considered of much account if he remained as Czar, for his methods would not be changed toward his own people although he would appear to other nations as a nobody at the head of a people that would always be plotting for his overthrow.

The London Times, in discussing the cotton situation, says that it will be years before West Africa raises even a hundred thousand bales of cotton. The cotton growing sections of this country will not find fault with this, as we could raise enough to supply a greater demand than is grown at the present time.

Many young men who are starting out in life look about for some one after whom to pattern, when the fact is apparent that success in life, by whatever standard that success be measured, depends more upon the man than upon the examples before him. There are qualities inherent and qualities that may be cultivated that mean eventual success provided their owner is of the "right sort." Without any example at all a man with those qualities will succeed. Without them, and yet with the most lustrous example the world has ever seen, no man can succeed.

With a good sewerage system in a city there is less danger of the dreaded infections that frequently make their appearance and terrorize the people as well as paralyze business. The yellow fever was a terror to the people of Havana until the United States put in a system of sewerage and inaugurated modern sanitary measures. Every city of any size will find it pays in the long run to have good sewerage.

Howell Herring of Plant City is accused of running a blind tiger. When the officers attempted to arrest him Thursday, he drew two revolvers and fired once at the marshal. He was finally arrested and fined $5 for resisting an officer. Must have a pull.

In his sermon on "Good Advice," Rev. Dr. Jordan of Savannah said: "Young man, never spend a cent of anybody else's money, and never borrow any money to spend." If this advice is followed many young men might be better off.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has been asked to speak at the Mid-Winter Fair at Tampa, before the Sunday school children, on a subject pertaining to righteous government. Other prominent speakers will also be there.

Some people don't like to be told to clean up their premises, but the sanitary officer must do his duty, and the better he does it, the less business there will be for the grave digger.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develope into nervous prostration.

Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nervine brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"During the past winter I had two attacks of LaGrippe which left me very weak, and in bad condition. I was so nervous I could not sleep. My wife, after trying different remedies, went for a doctor. The doctor was out, and a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and she brought home a bottle. I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my head. After taking a few doses of Nervine the pain was not so severe, and I slept. I am now taking the second bottle, and am very much improved."
HENRY M. SMITH, Underhill, Vt.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

ALTERING A PICTURE.

Why the Change Did Not Please the Original Artist.

An artist was talking about the noted German painter Adolf von Menzel.

"Von Menzel," he said, "painted the clearest and most distinct of pictures. Everything with him was worked out to the last hair. Nothing was ever suggested. With suggested, sketchy, impressionistic pictures he had no sympathy. He was called the Meissonier of Germany.

"In a discussion of a certain impressionist's vague, unintelligible work I once heard Von Menzel say:

"'This man Markheim sold to the Countess X. two years ago one of his landscapes. The countess after she had had the landscape a few weeks tired of it, and to another artist who dined with her one night she said:

"'"I think the new picture that Herr Markheim sold me lacks animation. It needs life in it. Would you be willing to paint for me a man or woman on that road that runs through the middle?"

"'"Why, surely, madam," said the second painter. And he took the picture home with him, made the addition and returned it the next morning.

"'Later, meeting Markheim, he said:

"'"I had the audacity to alter a landscape of yours the other day. It was the landscape you sold the Countess X." She wanted a figure in it, and to oblige her I painted an old peasant walking down the road."

"'Markheim frowned.

"'"The road?" he said. "The road? I don't remember any road in that picture."

"'"Oh, yes, there is a road," said the other.

"'"I can't recall it," said Markheim.

"'Finally, to settle the matter, they went to the house of the countess and stood before the picture.

"'"There," said Markheim's brother artist—"there is your road, and there is my old peasant walking down it."

"'"Fool," Markheim cried, "what have you done? That is not a road in the center of my work. It is a river."'—San Francisco News-Letter.

THE GROUND CUCKOO.

Remarkable Cunning It Displays In Catching Rattlers.

One of the most interesting zoological oddities is the California ground cuckoo. He usually is from twenty to twenty-five inches long, including his tail, which measures one-half of his whole length. On account of his small wings he is a poor flier, but what he lacks in aerial dexterity he makes up in pedestrian velocity. With his four yard jumps he can outrun the swiftest race horse. His geographical range is confined to southern California, Mexico and some parts of Texas. As a bird of prey the ground cuckoo outwits his most avidious fellow creatures. Snails and large worms constitute his principal food, which he is busy all day in digging out of the ground. But he does not hesitate to attack larger animals. It is no trouble for him to get the better of small snakes, and when domesticated he beats any cat or dog in the extermination of mice and small house pests.

Most curiously interesting is the strategic sagacity he displays in the capture of large rattlesnakes. These he dare not meet in fair and open combat. As soon as he espies a rattlesnake sleeping in the sun near a cactus hedge he surrounds his victim with a heap of the prickly leaves until he is well hemmed in. He then pricks at the reptile a few times with his sharp bill, which causes a sudden commotion in the cactus heap. In his attempt to disentangle himself from the leaves he wounds his tender flesh, and it takes but an hour or two for the average rattler to die of sheer exhaustion and furnish a much coveted tidbit for the sly cuckoo. His method with his prey resembles that of the cat with the mouse.

Influence of Red Hair.

"There never has been an important revolutionary movement without a red haired person intimately concerned, if not the leader," says a writer. "Nearly all the great reformers or founders of religions had red hair. History mentions that Mohammed was a red haired man. King David was ruddy. Louis XIV. was a sandy haired man, with many of the characteristic peculiarities of the type. Cleopatra is called 'the red haired Greek.' Mary, queen of Scots, had red hair, and Prince Charles resembled her in coloring. Lucrezia Borgia looks in her portraits somewhat auburn. Queen Elizabeth was of decidedly red coloring, which will suit both her admirers and her detractors."

Its Exact Shade.

The elder Dumas once was wearing the ribbon of a certain order, having recently been made a commandant, and an envious friend remarked upon it. "My dear fellow," he said, "that cordon is a wretched color! One would think it was your woolen vest that was showing." "Oh, no, my dear D'E——," replied Dumas, with a smile, "you're mistaken. It's not a bad color; it is exactly the shade of the sour grapes in the fable."

Bluebeard.

"Who was the original Bluebeard?" asks a writer in the London Chronicle. He continues: "We owe the familiar Bluebeard of the pantomime to Charles Perrault, the Frenchman who published in 1696-97 his immortal stories of 'Bluebeard,' 'The Sleeping Beauty,' 'Little Red Riding Hood' and 'Cinderella.' But it is very uncertain who, if anybody, was Perrault's model for Bluebeard. Some have supposed that it was our Henry VIII., others that the tale is a lampoon upon the castle lords of knight errantry days in general. Perhaps the favorite candidate has been Giles de Rais, marshal of France, who was hanged and burned in 1440 for an awful series of crimes. During fourteen years he was believed to have kidnaped about 150 children, tortured them, sacrificed them to the devil, burned their bodies and buried their bones in his castle grounds. But the resemblance between his tale and Bluebeard's is too slight to be convincing."

An Unmarried Widow.

It would appear that the standard of happiness of at least one African widow in Manhattan had reached high water mark, judging by this advertisement published a few days ago:

Widow, colored, age 34, with high school training, vocalist, excellent cook, desires a husband same age or younger; awful extremely fair, clean, sober, moral and never been married. Address WIDOW.

The following personal, printed in a metropolitan newspaper the other day, deserves a class by itself:

A European gentleman wishes to meet an American who is the typical daughter of all that is most admirable in our age; one gifted with the bold frankness of understanding, the enthusiasm of expectancy, the merry cheerfulness of superiority, the psychical and physical alertness of those of tomorrow; the worldly independence of this optimist must be duplicated; view, matrimony.

Knives For Brides.

The custom of giving knives to brides was formerly a common practice, when it was fashionable for women to wear knives sheathed and suspended from their girdles. A wedding offered an opportunity of presenting something novel or ornamental in the cutlery line, and frequent reference to such presents occurs in the plays of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. In the "Witch of Edmonton," 1648, for instance, the bride is described as wearing "the new pair of Sheffield knives, fitted to one sheath." A list of trinkets usually worn by ladies about 1560 includes girdles, knives, purses and pin cases. In Dekker's "Match Me In London," 1631, the bride says to her jealous husband:

"See, at my girdle hang my wedding knives;
With these dispatch me."

Indignation.

Law Notes relates that Albert E. Pillsbury, former attorney general of Massachusetts, on visiting the birthplace of Horace Greeley in Amherst, N. H., noticed that there was no placard about the place to inform the public of its historical interest. Accordingly he himself tacked on the house a card which read: "This is the birthplace of Horace Greeley." While he was engaged at this task a passing native paused to read the card, and, turning to Mr. Pillsbury, he remarked with some acidity: "The gall of some of you fellers that hev made money in the city is fairly sick'nin'. What do you suppose folks here care whether you was born on this farm or some other farm? Them's my sentiments, Mr. Greeley, and don't you forgit it!"

Carried It With Him.

A short time ago a burial took place at sea from one of his majesty's cruisers. As there were no leads with the stores large pieces of coal were attached to the body in their place. All the crew were summoned on the quarter deck for the burial. Just as the body was being lowered Pat burst out laughing. Next morning the chaplain sent for Pat and asked for an explanation of his laughter at such a very solemn time. "Sure now," replied Pat, "Oi've heerd o' many a wan goin' below, but Oi've nivver seen wan take 'is coal with un afore."—London Tatler.

Cleverly Evaded.

A wealthy Australian squatter in order to protect his six daughters from fortune hunters left his property to them in equal shares, but decreed that if either married without the consent of the trustees she should forfeit her share to her sisters. When the case came up at Sydney it was found that the six sisters had all married without permission, and thus each had forfeited her share in the property to her sisters, a state of affairs which the ladies doubtless considered highly satisfactory.

How He Proposed.

It is told of Oliver Wendell Holmes that after many futile attempts to propose to the lady of his choice his courage failed. They were walking one pleasant afternoon on Boston Common and, coming to where the path separated, he asked, "Which path shall we take?" "This one," she replied, turning toward it. "For life?" he asked. And she said "Yes."

WANT LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Georgia Legislature Is Rushed With Many New Bills.

Atlanta, July 28.—At the busiest session that has yet been held by the senate of the general assembly of 1905-6 a number of important measures were considered and passed upon, and several new bills which will attract considerable attention were introduced Wednesday.

Senator Wheatley, of the thirteenth district, is the author of five companion bills introduced Tuesday which seek to provide for the creation of the office of lieutenant governor in Georgia.

Senator Wheatley's bills cover the ground thoroughly, taking up each of the sections and articles of the code which will have to be amended in order to provide for the election of a lieutenant governor.

The first of the series of bills provides that the lieutenant governor shall preside over the senate, that he shall receive a salary of $400 per annum, but need not reside in the capital of the state except when the general assembly is in session or when he is performing the duties of governor when by death, resignation or disability that officer is prevented from acting in his official capacity.

In the House.

Several important measures were favorably considered by the house committee on general judiciary Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance at the committee meeting and numbers of citizens wer eon hand to speak in favor of bills under discussion.

Among the matters taken up and accorded favorable reports was the resolution providing for a commission to investigate the condition of affairs in the vicinity of the Ducktown Cooper mills and report to the governor. In support of this W. H. Shippen, of Elijay, and a number of prominent men residing in the neighborhood of the smelters, appeared before the committee.

Though a final vote on the Felder state reformatory bill was not reached in the house Wednesday, the debate on the measure was concluded, a favorable report was made by the committee of the whole with few dissenting votes, and there is practically no doubt that the bill will be passed by the house at Thursday morning's session.

The entire session of the house was taken up with the discussion of this measure. The defeat brought out a variety of ideas on the subject of reformatories, though there was very little opposition to the bill. An effort was made to entirely divorce the reformatory from the state penitentiary system, but this was finally abandoned, and an important amendment to the bill was adopted, providing that it shall be located on the state farm near Milledgeville.

Feel Impending Doom.

It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion [illegible] of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me well man." J. W. McCol-

Mrs. Sanford Makes Statement.

Rome, Ga., July 28.—Mrs. Vincent Sanford sends out the following statement: "In view of the publication of the case in the Rome and Atlanta papers of this date, I beg that the public withhold its opinion until all statements shall establish the case to myself. Remember I am a helpless woman, passing the most trying ordeal to which a woman can be subjected. I have suffered and suffered for the hands of my unfortunate husband. Until I can, with propriety, be allowed to speak more fully, I trust the sentiment withhold its judgment. There are many things I shall state at the proper time."

Beat Her Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney [illegible] at all drug stores. 50c.

The Food Value of a Soda Cracker

You have heard that some foods furnish fat, other foods make muscle, and still others are tissue building and heat forming.

You know that most foods have one or more of these elements, but do you know that no food contains them all in such properly balanced proportions as a good soda cracker?

The United States Government report shows that soda crackers contain less water, are richer in the muscle and fat elements, and have a much higher per cent of the tissue building and heat forming properties than any article of food made from flour.

That is why Uneeda Biscuit should form an important part of every meal. They represent the superlative of the soda cracker, all their goodness and nourishment being brought from the oven to you in a package that is proof against air, moisture and dust—the price being too small to mention.

POSTMASTER BARRON HERE.

Wounded Postmaster of Evinston Visited Gainesville Friday.

J. F. Barron, postmaster of Evinston, was a visitor to Gainesville Friday.

It will be remembered that Mr. Barron was seriously wounded a few days ago while lying on a counter in the postoffice reading, it is supposed by John P. Hester, a merchant of that town. Nine buckshot took effect in his side, but none proved serious, although the victim was confined to his room for some time. He is enabled to be around on crutches now, however, and says he is feeling extraordinarily good under the circumstances.

Mr. Barron has many friends in this city who were glad to see him, and who sympathized with him in the death of his son, Watt Barron, who was shot and killed instantly at the time his father received the load.

John P. Hester has not yet been captured.

Mr. Phifer's Patent.

D. M. Phifer of this city has always possessed an ingenious turn of mind, and his latest invention is destined to place him on easy street with a straight road before him.

Mr. Phifer has invented an improved turpentine chipper, which he claims is not only more easily manipulated than the kind now in use, but will do the work of four men in the same length of time. He will send the model to Washington at once, and hopes to have the patent issued and the tool before the public in a few weeks.

The chipper is simple, but like all other good inventions, the simplicity is that which counts.

First Cotton of the Season.

The first cotton of the season in Alachua county, and probably in the State, was brought to Cadillac Thursday last and was purchased by C. B. McClenney, Sons & Co. It was grown by a colored man in the vicinity whose name we did not learn.

The price is not divulged, but it is safe to say that Messrs. McClenney, who are always up to date, paid enough for the privilege of buying the first of the season.

A Juvenile Party.

Charles A. Nichols, Jr., entertained a number of his young friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nichols, East Orange street, Thursday evening. The evening was passed in a manner becoming the occasion and all who attended report a delightful time.

Baseball Game.

The Gainesville and Micanopy baseball teams crossed bats for the championship at the baseball park Friday afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the Micanopy team, the score being six to eight in favor of the visitors.

The Micanopy boys played good ball, and deserve credit. They demonstrated the fact that they knew a thing or two about the National game.
